

Dear FCC,

Please allow states to retain the right to make telemarketing regulations more restrictive than the federal regulations. Since New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list has been put into effect, the amount of telemarketing calls that I receive has dropped significantly. With my privacy no longer being interrupted by unwanted phone calls, I have been able to spend more quality with my family.